ALL BUT ONE GONE

Of the Passengers and Crew of a Wrecked Vessel.

IT IS THE WESTERN RESERVE

Twenty-One of Twenty-Two People on Hoard Drowned, Including the Owner and His Whole Family.

Manganers, Mich., Sept. L - The steamer Western Reserve broke in two off Au Sable banks Tuesday might, and all but one of the twenty-seven on board were drowned. Harry Stewart of Aigonac, Mich., was the only one saved. Two of the bodies were washed ashure this morning. The Western Reserve, which was bound for Cleveland, was a strel boat of 2,000 tons, owned at Cleveland and valued at $220,000.

The following passengers were on hoard when the ill-fator vessel went down: Capt. Peter Minch, the owner, with his wife and two children, Charles and Florence: Mrs. Mary Engleberry and Bertha Engleberry, of Vermillion. The crew consisted of Albert Myers, of Vermillion: Capt. W. H. Leamer, of Cleveland, chief engineer; Fred En-galls, first mate; Charles Leban, second mate; Charles Wells, assistant engineer Burt Smith, steward; Kay Applebee, steward; Schnyler Stewart, Watchman; Daniel Forbes, lookout; Carl Meyers, whoeisman, son of the captain; John Saicheo, fireman; S. D. Holden, fireman; Horace Burroughs, fireman; Martin Klauser, greaser; Robest Simson, greaser; Daniel Stickney, deck band, S. T. Longneld, deck hand, M. Coffee, deck band; John Wilson, dack hand. This was the makeup of the crew who served the last trip of the steamer and it is probable that it was not changed since. Capt. Peter Minch, the owner of the Western Reserve retired five years ago and settled down in Cleveland to manage his large vessel interests. The present trip was intended as a pleasure trip for houself and family and several triends.

The yawls were lowered but the opperation took some time, as it was the first time they had ever been used. Capt. Peter Minch, his wife and children and five of the crew got into the first boat and the rest of the crew, seventeen in number, in the other. The first boat sank almost instantly and only two of its occupants were rescued by the other boat. The steamer sank less than ten minutes after they left here. The second boat headed for shore and rowed almost fifty miles. When only ten miles from shore the boat capsand, and but one— Harry Stewart—managed to reach shore. He swam to Whitefish point, procured a boat and rowed along the shore until he signaled a passing ship, which took him on board and brought

COURT MARTIAL IN DETROIT.

Lieutenant Woodbudge Geary of the Nineteenth U. S. Infantry the Culprit.

DETROPT, Sept. 1.-The court-martial ordered by General Miles for the trial of Lieutenant Woodbridge Geary of the Nineteenth infantry, U. S. A., began at Fort Wayne this morning. The charges against him are "conduct to the prejudice of good order and military disci-pline" and "conduct unbecoming a gentleman." The trouble occurred at Fort Mackinac, when the Nineteenth assembled there for target practice. Lieutenant Geary was quartermaster, and it appears that the flour he gave not meet the approval of the commanding officer, Major J. H. Smith, who is the complaining witness. Words ensued, and finally in indersing an offi-cial communication Lieutenant Geary, it is alleged, used grossly disrespectful language. The court is composed of the following officers: Colonel George M. Brayton, Nineteenth infantry; Lieutenaut Colonel Samuel Ovenshine, Captain H. H. Himphreys, Captain C. H. Courad, Captain H. E. Brinkerhoff, Captain E. S. Chain, Captain G. K. Mc-Guenegal and Captain T. F. Davis, of the Fifteenth infantry; Major T. A. Baldwin and Captain W. S. Edgerly, Seventh cavalry; Captain C. A. Woodruff, Second artiflery, and Captain D. J. Craigie, Twelfth infantry. Colonel Brayton is president of the court, and Lieutenant A. R. Paxton, of the Seventeenth infantry, judge advocate. Woodbridge pleaded "not guilty" to all the specifications, and the court acjourned until to norrow.
